Re: State of Illinois Sales Tax Exemption

Please be advised that Northwestern University is organized and operated exclusively for educational purposes. Consequently, sales of any kind to Northwestern University are exempt from the Retailer's Occupation Tax, the Services Occupation Tax (both state and local), the Use Tax and the Service Use Tax in the State of Illinois. The Illinois Department of Revenue has issued to Northwestern University the following tax exemption identification number:

E9990-4055

The referenced tax exemption identification number will expire on October 1, 2024.

This letter is to be used exclusively by Northwestern employees to make one-time University purchases, it CANNOT be used to set up a tax exempt house account or membership, and it is NOT to be used for personal use by individual faculty, staff, or students. The undersigned hereby certifies that he/she is an employee of Northwestern University and is duly authorized to make said purchases and that the article or articles specified in the accompanying order are purchased for the exclusive use of Northwestern University from:

(insert vendor name)

Please note that vendors are also advised they should primarily only accept official forms of payment from the University, such as those associated with the issuance of a formal Purchase Order (check or electronic payment) or a Northwestern Corporate Card. Vendors should generally not accept a non-Northwestern form of payment (such as cash, personal check, or personal credit card).

It is understood that the fraudulent use of the certificate to secure exemption will subject the undersigned and all participating parties to appropriate disciplinary action.
